

Dengie Healthy Tummy

USEFUL INFO:

- Healthy Tummy is a nutritionally-balanced, pure alfalfa, high-fibre feed containing high specification ingredients to promote digestive health.
- A blend of chopped and pelleted alfalfa with a rapeseed oil coating providing 11.5MJ/kg of Digestible Energy from fibre and oil
- Alfalfa is a widely recognised ingredient for promoting digestive health due to its natural buffering properties
- Approved by BETA for horses and ponies prone to Equine Gastric Ulcer Syndrome
- No added sugar and naturally low in starch at just 2%
- Healthy Tummy contains ADM Protexin In-Feed Formula, which supplies prebiotics to promote a healthy microbial population that is vital for fibre digestion and gut health
- A high specification of vitamins and minerals, including B vitamins. Additional magnesium and calcium are included to help maintain optimal digestive health
- Healthy Tummy provides more chew time than 'ulcer' mixes or cubes which generates more saliva; the horse's natural defence against acidity
- Contains a unique blend of tasty herbs – oregano, cinnamon and ginger – to tempt fussy horses
- Healthy Tummy is rich in highly digestible fibre and packed with natural vitamins and minerals
- Free from molasses, preservatives and straw
- The alfalfa is precision-dried to lock in natural nutrients and produce an exceptionally clean source of fibre compared to sun-dried forages.
- One large round scoop holds approximately 500g, 15kg bale, 6 months shelf life
